CANDIDATES DOWN TO BUSINESS THIS WEEK

Politicians Working Hard For Recognition, But Fight for Various Offices is Still as Much as Guess as Ever—Local People Busy

Politicians will be active in Charleroi tonight and from indications and pre-announcements there will be an almost complete assortment here shaking hands with friends. The drawing card will be the Moose dedicatory events at the new Moose emple on McKean avenue.

Both Republicans and Democrats are expected to be well represented here in the list of eager patriots. Aspirants for all sorts of county offices from judge down to director of the poor and coroner will be here, if announcements hold true. Then candidates for borough offices, of which there are many, will be flitting about smiling and asking voters how they feel.

All this is in anticipation of some of the hottest political fighting ever known in Charleroi borough and Washington county. In the borough there are to be three councilmen, two two school directors and a constable elected among others. Inasmuch as these are all important places there will be hot fighting. The complete list of candidates will be available in a day or two when the first specimen ballots are received from the county commissioner's office. There are over a dozen candidates out for council and not so many for school director. F. W. Jones and George Stablein are the candidates for constable.

Concerning the county fight there is nothing to be learned. According to rumor certain leaders at the county seat have selected a list of candidates for whom they will pull, but this will not help the political prophets much in picking winners. Things are too much in the air. So far it seems Clark has a margin the better of it in the judge fight. The county commissioner battle is a guess and so are other of the county offices including those of sheriff, district attorney and treasurer. Parshall has a good claim to the nomination for register, it would seem, though the place will be hard fought and only death itself could keep A. V. Lewis from receiving the undisputed Republican nomination for prothonotary, a job he will later win because of his undisputed strength.

In the Democratic field interest is centered somewhat in the nominations for county commissioner, with Joe T. S. Cowen of Roscoe, A. P. Barnum of Allenport and Dr. T. M. Faddis, of Charleroi, fighting for recognition. Cowen and Barnum are looming up strong and the Democrats rightly consider them good men. Dr. Faddis will poll a large vote, having strong friends in county democracy.

HOLD UP MAN AND THEN BEAT HIM BECAUSE CHANGE IS SHORT

Charles Hughes of Brownsville Has Experience With Highwaymen Near West Brownsville.

While returning to his home in Centerville after a trip to Brownsville, Charles Hughes was held up by two men, believed to have been Am[illegible], and robbed of all his loose change which happened to be slightly over $2. The robbery occurred near West Brownsville.

Because he was so poorly supplied with the coin of the realm the men gave Hughes a severe beating. An automobile passed while the holdup was in progress and the highwaymen dragged Hughes to one side of the road and held his mouth shut while the car passed.

When the men left him lying on the road, Hughes arose and went to Brownsville where he notified Sergeant Graham of the state police. Members of the constabulary force immediately began work on the case but no trace of the bandits has been yet found.

PRETTY WEDDING TAKES PLACE AT SCOTT HAVEN

Miss Margaret Jones and Clarence B. James Are Married in Presence of Members of Immediate Families and Few Intimate Friends

At 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Scott Haven the wedding of Miss Margaret Jones, daughter of W. T. Jones to Dr. Clarence B. James, of Charleroi, took place. The event, a pretty home affair was witnessed by members of the immediate families of the contracting couple and a few intimate friends.

The bride was atended by Mrs. Carl Schempp, of Donora, as matron of honor. The groom's best man was Mr. Schempp. The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of taffeta and silk. Her veil was caught with pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a boquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Schempp wore her wedding gown of embroidered shadow lace and taffeta. Her shower boquet consisted of pink roses and snapdragons.

For the march to the altar Miss Mabel Gaut, of Charleroi, played the wedding march from Lohengrin and following the ceremony rendered the Mendelsohn march.

In the dining room of the home a lunch was served and shortly afterward the happy couple left on their honeymoon trip to Elwood, Ind., and Chicago, Ill. They will not go to housekeeping at once upon their return, but after January 1 will be at home to their friends in Charleroi.

The bride formerly made her home with her sister in Charleroi, where she has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Dr. James is a rising young dentist. He is a graduate of the dental department of the University of Pittsburg, who since opening up an office a year ago here has won a large practice. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. James, of Lincoln avenue.

WEDNESDAY PROGRAM AT MOOSE TEMPLE BIG ONE

Ellsworth-Cokeburg Band Renders Pleasing Program—Loving Cup From Monessen—Noted Men Coming Tonight as Speakers.

What proved to be the biggest night so far in the weeks' events at the dedication of the new Moose temple on McKean avenue near Seventh street was Wednesday night. It was regarded as Ellsworth and Cokeburg night, combined. The featuring part of the program was a splendid band concert that was given by the Ellsworth-Cokeburg band.

The band program consisted of several of the best known musical compositions, including the "Raymond" overture, "La Traviata", Verdi and the famous sextet from Lucia. There were forty players in the band and a good blend was maintained. Miss Olive Painter was the soloist, singing well her selections.

The concert was public, being given from the Moose porch, and it was listened to and enjoyed by a large crowd which lined the street in front of the new $30,000 club house.

During the course of the evening the Monessen lodge presented a beautiful silver loving cup to the Charleroi lodge. It will be given a position of honor in the new home.

With one possible exception all the speakers previously announced will be here tonight to address the public meeting which will be held in the lodge room. The Donora band will be on hand to furnish music, for this will be observed as Donora and Monongahela night. The chief of the speakers will be Judge Robert W. Irwin of Washington, Mayor Joseph G. Armstrong of Pittsburg, Congressman M. M. Garland of Pittsburg, James J. Davis of Washington, directing general of the Loyal Order of Moose, Edwin J. Hanning, supreme dictator of the L. O. O. M. at San Diego, Cal., and other members of note in the order. Senator Boise Penrose will be unable to come.

Tonight acording to the announced program Burgess S. L. Woodward, who is a trustee on the Charleroi order will deliver the opening address. Councilman W. R. Gaut will introduce the speakers.

STRIKES NOSE AGAINST TROLLEY WIRE; KILLED

Miner at Crescent Mine is Electrocuted in Peculiar Way While on His Way to Work Tuesday—Funeral Arrangements Made.

Striking his nose against the mine trolley wire as he was climbing into a mine car previous to entering the Crescent mine at California Wednesday, Peter Roseman, aged 23, of California was electrocuted. Burns showed on his nose and on his hands and chest.

Roseman had not yet been at work Wednesday and was just preparing for his day's duties. When he received the heavy voltage carried in the wire he was thrown against the side of the mine car. When picked up he had breathed his last.

Roseman had no closer relatives than cousins in this country. In Europe his father, mother and five brothers are living.

Burial will take place in Calvary cemetery at Coal Centre at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

MARKER AND CHIEF BENDER WILL SHOOT MATCH HERE

West Brownsville Marksman and Indian Baseball Pitcher Sign Contract For Live Bird Shoot

Arrangements have been completed by George Marker of West Brownsville, state champion live pigeon shot, with George A. "Chief" Bender, Indian baseball player and all round sportsman for a live pigeon match to be held in the Charleroi baseball park, on Wednesday, October 6. Mr. Marker has just returned from Philadelphia where he conferred with the Indian and signed the agreement for the match for a $1,000 purse. Each man will shoot at 25 birds.

Mr. Marker has participated in but two matches within the last year and has been an easy victor in both. Amos Smith matched his skill with Marker twice last year, and but recently lost a match for $1,000 to Marker at Monongahela after having secured a big lead over Marker.

Chief Bender will be remembered as one of Connie Mack's first string pitchers when the Philadelphia Athletics figured in the world series money. He is at present playing independent ball in New York state. The match has already aroused much enthusiasm in this section of the Monongahela valley and sportsmen from all over Western Pennsylvania will gather at Charleroi next October 6 to witness the match. Betting it is expected will be warm.

Saturday, September 18, is the date of Dawson's Millinery opening. You are invited to attend. 79-t2—*

The inquest into the death of William Johns, the Roscoe colored man who was killed on the railroad near the Charleroi freight station last Sunday morning will be held on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the undertaking rooms of Lawrence B. Frye. Coroner James T. Heffran is to conduct the inquest. Jurors are now being summoned to hear the inquest.

WAS ONE OF FIRST TO SETTLE IN CHARLEROI

Oliver Frocheur Who Dropped Dead From Effect of Heat Wednesday Pioneer Plate Glass Worker, Coming When the Town Was New.

Arrangements are being made to hold the funeral of Oliver Frocheur, aged 66 years and three months, who fell dead near his home on Lincoln avenue Wednesday noon, on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with funeral services at the French Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. J. E. Charles, Ph. D., pastor of the church. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Mr. Frocheur was one of the Charleroi's first residents, coming here when the plant of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Works was in course of erection. He worked at the local plant for many years, becoming one of the best known of the employes there. As previously stated he is survived by his widow, who is an invalid, two sons, Homer and Campbell both of Charleroi and three daughters, Mrs. George Wilson of Brownsville, Mrs. Frank Rossomme of Charleroi and Miss Flora Frocheur at home.

Mr. Frocheur was standing talking with a friend just a few yards from his home when he suddenly pitched forward. In a few minutes he was dead, having expired in fact before he could be carried into his home and a doctor summoned. He had just returned from a fishing trip and it is supposed that his death was due to apoplexy and the effects of the heat.

ANNUAL RECEPTION FOR CRADLE ROLL AND HOME DEPARTMENTS

With a cradle roll of 90 members and a home department of 80 members the Sunday school room of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church was a busy place Wednesday afternoon when the annual reception was held. The room was beautifully decorated with the home department colors, purple and white. Streamers were drawn from the center of the ceiling and festooned into a bower effect. Rev. John R. Burson, pastor of the church made the chief address and a solo was sung by Miss Emma Clutter. Small tables occupied one side of the room and the social hour was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. The ages of those present ranged from three months to 80 years. A number of the little folks recited under the direction of Miss Grace Gelder.

COMMISSIONERS GET SPECIMEN BALLOTS

Many Candidates on List—Fourteen Offices to be Filled in County—Washington Party Evidently Is Dead Letter

The county commissioners have received the first specimen ballots for the primary election to be held September 21, 1915. There are 25 county offices to be filled at the election this fall, of which number 11 may be filled by the majority party, one by the minority and one non-partisan. From the looks of the ballots it seems that the big fight will be between the candidates on the Republican party. It is conceded by all that the county will go Republican at the election, therefore all interests centers around the primaries.

Out of the 11 offices that will probably be filled by Republicans, the names of three candidates for congress, although one has withdrawn, appear on the ballot, while there are 10 for county commissioner, one for prothonotary, six for sheriff, three for register of wills, one for clerk of courts, four for district attorney, five for director of the poor and one for county surveyor. The Democrats can elect one county commissioner, while there are four candidates for judge of the court of common pleas of this county on the non-partisian ticket. The greatest interest centers in the fight for judge, congress, sheriff and district attorney.

The Washington party is evidently a dead letter, as there are no candidates in the field. The ticket of this party being made up of a number of blank spaces, while A. S. Hunter, of Beaver county, candidate for congress is the only man whose name appears on the Prohibition ticket.

ERGING GOOD CANDIDATES.

Republican leaders in Pennsylvania continue to urge upon party workers in every county in the state the importance of nominating capable and acceptable candidates in the coming primaries. It is explained by the party leaders that this year is of immense importance to the Republican party. The registration also shows a general "get together" movement in every county in the state and with efficient and acceptable candidates nominated at the primaries the battle in the fall will be approached with a united party and with candidates certain to command support and approval.

Self-seeking men, unscrupulous in their methods, have done much in the recent past to keep open the division in the party. Discontent has threatened the supremacy of the Republican party in the state, but fortunately the self-seekers are being relegated to the rear and they are certain of being kept well in the background if acceptable Republican candidates are chosen at next week's primaries.

With candidates commanding the united support of the Republicans party success at the polls in November is certain.

Now is the time to confront Democracy with a united, vigorous and efficient army of Republicans. The whole people, not only in Pennsylvania but in every other state in the union, are anxious for a return to the principles and policies of the Republican party. They want work and good wages, not experiments with political theories.

The way to enjoy this extremely warm weather is to go ahead and enjoy it. Taking it calmly will help a lot and maybe save your life. Don't get excited.

"FAMILY CARES" TO BE NORTH AMERICAN SUBJECT

The North American is going to make a new departure in picture supplements by issuing with its edition of September 19 a wonderfully artistic photogravure print entitled "Family Cares." This is a picture which will appeal to every lover of children and every one who is interested in child life. It represents a little girl clad in her nightie going downstairs with a sick pet. The expression on the child's face shows the real trouble with which her soul is burdened. It is the work of a master artist and will find instant favor with North American readers.

The North American picture policy, which will be followed for several weeks to come is based upon the idea that a picture worth preserving should be issued in such form as will allow it to be preserved. The print of "Family Cares" is on handsome heavy paper. It is done in the best style of the photogravure art and is ready for framing. It is worthy of a place on the wall of any home.

FOUR ARE UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH IN WESTMORELAND

Westmoreland county has three convicted murderers in jail awaiting execution and the first one to pay the penalty will be the first in the county to be electrocuted.

Andrew Becze, aged 34, was found guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of Andy Huhak at the West Leechburg steel mills, May 2, according to the verdict returned to Judge W. H. Ruppel. This means that Becze must forfeit his life to the state.

Charles Douglas, the negro, who was found guilty of murder of the first degree at this term of court for killing Joseph Smith at his shanty on Riverside road, August 20, 1915, is apparently worrying over his fate.

Ernest Reaping of Latrobe, who shot and killed Isaac Wedge, near Latrobe on the night of November 12, 1914 is being detained in the Greensburg jail. He was found guilty of first degree murder at February term of court.

The men are sitting in their cells in the most deplorable mind condition. There may be some hope in Reaping's case as it is said that there will be an effort made to have him pardoned.

RAILROAD LAYING STORM SEWERS AT MONONGAHELA

Necessity Arises When Grade of Tracks is Elevated—Backwater Caused When There is Storm

The Pennsylvania Railroad company through its section gang in charge of Foreman Castner is now engaged in installing storm sewers beneath its tracks and through to the river at Monongahela. Sewers will be installed at Fourth, Sixth, Ninth streets and West Alley and will run from the street side of the railroad through to the river. The sewers will be of cast iron and will be 20 inches in diameter.

At Fourth and Ninth streets sewer drops will be installed on each side of the street with 24 inch pipes leading to the thirty inch main.

The installation of these storm sewers has been hanging fire for many years and many efforts have been made to have them installed.

The necessity arose when the grade of the Pennsylvania tracks was raised higher than the street grade and as a result when there is a rain, the water runs down to the railroad tracks and then backs up on the adjacent property, in many cases having caused considerable damage.

DAIRYMAN ORGANIZE AT MEETING IN PITTSBURG

Milk Rate Questions Take Up This Week—County Agriculturist Takes Up Question of Ordinance

Several important items of business were transacted at the annual meeting of the Tri-State Dairymen's association held in Pittsburg this week. The election of officers had the following result: President, W. J. Wilson, Imperial, shipper on the Montour; vice president, Robert W. Wilson, Canonsburg, shipper on the B. & O. secretary and treasurer, Richard J. Donaldson, Midway, shipper on the Panhandle.

The case of the milk rates was discussed in all its phases. It was the consensus of opinion that the outlook of the milkmen was all that could be wished for.

J. M. McKee, county agriculturist went to Pittsburg Wednesday to be present when an ordinance of interest to the milk shippers, making for better shipping conditions, was brought up in Pittsburg council. Because of a technicality arising concerning the legality of the measure the proposed ordinance was postponed until the matter could be investigated.

IMPORTANT STRETCH OF HIGHWAY IN ALLEGHENY TO BE IMPROVED

Road From Elkhorn to Monongahela Bridge to be Built—Will be Costly Because of Retention

A road in which autoists from the entire Monongahela valley is interested, that of the stretch between Elkhorn and the Monongahela bridge in Allegheny county is to be improved, a contract having been awarded. The cost will be $99,985.45.

The road which is to be improved with brick is about three miles in length and is conceded to be one of the most difficult of construction in this section of the state, through the fact that it has heretofore been impossible to hold the hillside.

The contractor is starting work this week and the road will be rushed through to completion. Though the price will average about $33,326.00 per mile, which is almost a record price, it is nevertheless under the estimate of many well known road experts. It will require a wonderful road bed and considerable concrete retaining wall and this is what will make the price run up. The road is on an important route to Pittsburg.

FEAST OF SPLENDORS WITH COMING CIRCUS

Barnum and Bailey Offerings Numerous—Opening Pageant Alone to be Participated in by 1,000 Persons—Novelty the Keynote

The Barnum and Bailey circus will exhibit here Wednesday, September 20 with its full feast of splendor spread under the largest expanse of canvas ever erected, like a banquet devised and fulfilled by some mythical King of Wonderland. In the opening pageant alone there will be over 1,000 persons gorgeously arrayed, with legions and phalanxes of elephants and horses. And when this spectacular pageant descriptive of Lalla Rookh's departure from Delhi has been fulfilled with its cavalcades of horses in trappings of gold and silver, its hosts of elephants and its hundreds of characters when all this will have seemed to absorb all the color left in the world, the performance which the circus offers this year will have barely started.

The management announces novelty and innovation as the keynote of this years ultimate idea in circus possibility. There will be for instance, athletic specialties, with names hallowed by antiquity—names generations old in the land of "sawdust and spangles."

And thus, with the bareback riders, the tumblers, the clowns, there will be dozens, sometimes scores of them now where once there were one or two.

Within and beneath the "big top" the circus folk promise a program for the largest part entirely new. Over two score countries are represented on the long bill. Switzerland sends Madam Bradna, a beatiful horsewoman, who presents a trained animal number including horses, ponies and dogs. Spain's representative is Luperta Parea, who will thrill by her exploits high in the air beneath the dome of the "big top," upon the flying trapeze. China sends three troupes from the Imperial Circus at Pekin, the members of which are acknowledged champion performers in many lines of athletic and arenic endeavor. The Hannaford Family of English equestrians are making their first American appearances in a display of equestrianism which has never been surpassed, if equalled, in this country. Paliensberg's Bears and Marcella's trained ravens, parrots and macaws are new features. The former ride bicycles and skate upon roller skates, and the latter do unheard-of things for birds are exceptionally hard to satisfactorily train. Adgie and her 12 jungle-bred lions furnish a thrilling performance within a steel arena.

The Tosca Sisters, four Parisian girls, are a new feature in a novel gymnastic performance, and the Paldrens the Bard's and Resua Sisters are also new to this country. In every department of circus endeavor only acknowledged champions find a place upon the Barnum program and a perfect circus, rich in novelties and newness is emphatically promised.

Saturday September 18 is the date of Evans Fall Millinery Opening. You are requested to attend. 78-t2

If, however, any poles or fixtures so erected are found to interfere with public improvements, the said Company shall, upon being notified by said Borough, remove and relocate at its own expense such poles or fixtures from the objectionable place to a more suitable location. And, provided further that the said Electric Company shall repair and replace in the same condition as existed before the said work was done, all streets or alleys, or parts thereof, damaged or torn up in the exercise of the privilege granted by this franchise, and upon the failure of the said Electric Company to make said repairs, the said Borough of Dunlevy may, on or after twenty (20) days' written notice, served on the local superintendent or other person in charge of the local office, make said repairs and collect the cost thereof from the said Electric Company by action of law.

DON'T BE THIN AND SKINNY

New Treatment Will Make You Fat.

"I have been thin for years and began to think it was my natural. I began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by use of Tonoline Tablets so I decided to try them myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just forty pounds during the last forty days, and never felt stronger. Tonoline Tabs are a powerful inducer to nutrition, increases cell-growth, food, increases the number of blood-corpuscles and as a necessary result builds up muscles, and solid healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener.

Go to your druggist and get a box of Tonoline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonoline tabs freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Tonoline Tablets cost $1.00 for a 15-days' treatment, at druggists, or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

VAUGHN IS SINGER OF NATIONAL PROMINENCE

Fayette City Young Man Popular Soloist With Great Orchestra—His Discovery Reads Like a Tale of Fiction.

From commercial school teacher to singer of national prominence is the step Walter Vaughn, of Fayette City has taken. His discovery as a vocalist of extraordinary ability reads like a tale of fiction.

Fortified with a business education Vaughn five years ago obtained a position as commercial teacher in a Knoxville, Tenn., school. He was ordinarily successful. At an entertainment one night he was asked informally to sing and little suspecting his powers tried an easy song with which he was familiar. By accident some New Yorkers connected with a company then appearing in Knoxville at a May festival heard him. Enthusiastic, they tried to persuade him to take up musical studies in New York. He declined to do this, but was influenced to try for a scholarship at the Cincinnati College of Music.

Vaughn won the scholarship the first time he tried for it, and every year since has repeated the performance. He has never paid a cent for his tuition.

In 1913-14 Vaughn's award was a gold medal with great distinction, receiving a "diploma, great distinction." Thus, Vaughn won the highest honors for the two last years of his course. Also he was given the Springer medal of award, a special honor.

Vaughn has sung with the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra several times. He has sung five operas with them and the coming December will sing the first popular concert with the orchestra.

Vaughn is now in New York starting studies under Herbert Witherspoon and Oscar Sanger, two of the most noted vocal teachers in America the former being a producer of operas at the Metropolitan Opera house. Following a term or two in New York Vaughn will go to Europe, if the war ends to continue his studies.
